Please tell us why you want to be a VSA Colorado Volunteer:

What skills and resources can you bring to the organization (If interested in being a teaching artist, please include resume.)

Check where your interests are and where you are able to volunteer:

___ Open Studio: Wednesday and Thursdays between 10am - 2pm (During Open Studio, volunteers provide support and assistance to the ArtWorks Artists, providing encouragement and support to our participating artists--including helping them to develop their own personal style, marketing their work, helping with commissioned projects and other tasks of helping out around the Gallery where needed.)

___ Teaching Artist: Wednesday and Thursdays between 12:30 - 2pm, as well as occasional planned times during programming hours. (Volunteers have the opportunity to share their art skills and talent with our artists and students within a wide range of teaching areas including: photography, printmaking, painting, personal development, etc.)

___ Respite in the Arts Day Assistant: 2nd Saturdays from 9:30am to 2:30pm and 3rd Fridays from 3:30 to 8:30pm of each month. ( During the Respite in the Arts program volunteers provide support and assistance to the Lead Artists and help in other ways to make the respite session a successful experience for all participants.)

___ Committee Member Positions: Committees meet once a month for 1-4 hours. (Access Gallery has three committees--Fundraising, Programming, and Marketing. The committees are involved in helping move the mission forward.)

___ Gallery Opening Night Assistant: 1st and 3rd Fridays from 4 to 8pm. (Volunteers help greet guests, sell artwork and share information about the shows and organization to the general public. Also help get the Gallery ready for the openings such as cleaning, setting up, stocking art-o-mat and other tasks as needed.)
